

Country	Italy
Study No.	Italy N. 12
Project	CoCoRa project.
Databases used including web link when possible	http://cocoraproject.eu/ http://cocoraproject.eu/wp-content/uploads/2016/03/cocora_brochure_en.pdf
Countries represented in the study	Italy; Austria,France;Germany;Denmark
Summary of study/report	CoCoRa is a two-year European project aiming to develop and test a new community-based prevention strategy against radicalisation towards violent and militant extremism among young people. Objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• To contribute to the improvement of prevention efforts against violent extremism and terrorist recruitment among young people</li> <li>• To develop a prevention programme focused on young people's empowerment and equal and active citizenship</li> <li>• To involve local communities as equal partners in developing the prevention programme, involving community knowledge, confidence and credibility</li> <li>• To train the young participants for an intercultural ambassadorship to engage in dialogue and coproduction with professionals in prevention activities</li> </ul>
Key findings	Drivers of recruitment young people
Conclusions of review	The CoCoRa project therefore aims to develop a prevention strategy in close collaboration with local communities and civil society resources Key topics of the activities for the Prevention Programme. will be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Anti-discrimination, equal treatment and human rights</li> <li>• Active Citizenship</li> <li>• Democracy and democratic institutions</li> <li>• Education and labour market</li> <li>• Empowerment, identity building and sense of belonging</li> <li>• Social and cultural capital</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Radicalisation and violent extremism</li><li>• Sports and voluntary activities</li><li>• Opportunities for young people at local, regional, national and EU level</li></ul>
--	---