

Fighting the risk of radicalisation through education in closed institutions

Country	FRANCE
Study No.	36
Title of work	Council of European Union
Databases used including web link when possible	http://data.consilium.europa.eu/doc/document/ST-9640-2016-INIT/en/pdf http://data.consilium.europa.eu/doc/document/ST-8365-2016-INIT/en/pdf
Countries represented in the study	All European countries
Summary of study/report	The different elements involved, the complexity of violent radicalization and its deep impact on society require an integrated and cross-sectoral approach at local, regional, national and European levels. This approach involves various sectors and actors including youth work, youth-led organizations and education. The role of youth policy and the youth sector in an integrated approach to support youth in their identity development.
Key findings	Prevention strategies – early stages of radicalization
Conclusions of review	