

Country	Italy
Study No.	Italy N. 9
Title of work	The RASMORAD project (Raising Awareness and Staff MObility on RADicalisation in Prison and Probation services)
Databases used including web link when possible	http://www.iprs.it/progetti/rasmorad-violent-radicalisation-prison-and-probation-services-radicalizzazione/
Countries represented in the study	Italy, France; Romania; Bulgaria, Belgium, Cipro
Summary of study/report	The RASMORAD project (24 months) approved and funded by the European Union's Justice Programme, aims at drawing up a shared protocol on the evaluation of Risk and the construction of de-radicalization paths for persons convicted, as well as the creation of a national network of experts in the phenomenon
Key findings	Cve training
Conclusions of review	The overall purpose of the project is the prevention of radicalisation in prisons, mainly by adopting specific preventative measures, developing risk assessment methodology, strengthening expertise in the identification of the risk, and enhancing prison and probation staffs' professional competences in order to implement exit strategies before release.